FOREWORD

We, the Seniors of 1963, have selected a key and keyhole to be our theme throughout this edition.

If properly used, education is the key to everyone's success. Thus, we, as seniors, hope that the future generations will use this key to a greater advantage.

Fond memories of the past are remembered by everyone. It is our hope that this yearbook will stimulate beautiful memories for you as you glance backward through the years.

But, you cannot dwell forever on your past experiences. You must look to the future. Therefore, use this keyhole for both backward and forward glances!

D E D I C A T I O N

Thank You, Mrs. Bee

Since Madison High School has been operating, you have helped the students realize the true meaning of knowledge. During these years, we regarded you not only as an outstanding teacher and supervisor of our library, but also as a wonderful friend. You have continually encouraged excellence in whatever we undertake. You have shown great understanding of the students and have, in all your dealings with us, displayed a sincere interest in our affairs. Your spirited enthusiasm coupled with your interest in the individual has given us an ideal to strive for.

BEST WISHES CLASS OF '63

SNAPSHOTS

CLASS WILL

As we approach adulthood certain things must be left behind, so the Senior Class willfully leaves

I, Carl Carter, leave the lockers Janice and I have together to Alan Daniel and Beverly Davis.

I, JoAnn Russelo, LEAVE and take Mike Scott with me. Sorry girls.

I, Mike Scott, am leaving with JoAnn and most likely we are taking all of our fights and arguments with us. C'est la vie!!

I, Frances Burns, being of unsure mind leave all my brownie points to Freddie DeBorde who is going to need more than that to make it out of the 7th Grade.

I, Laraine Withrow, will my ability to have those certain private sessions with Mr. Bowling to the next Yearbook Editor.

I, Alvery Combs, leave my ability to get the lowest grade in Government class to Bobby Little.

I, Eddie Faries, being of dehydrated mind and body, leave my ability to be the smallest Senior boy to Mike Pate HAH!!!

I, Walter Driever, being of sound mind and body, do hereby grant my ability to get into trouble to Tim Gilbreath.

I, Phyllis Coldiron, being of sound mind and body, leave all the fun I had in the Senior Play to the future Seniors.

I, Steve Collins, being of—well, you name it, do hereby leave all of my wonderful luck to anyone who thinks they've had enough of this word.

I, Joy Wells, being of sound mind and body, do hereby leave my giggle-puss nature in Chemistry class to my sister, Donna.

I, Mary Sue Hollar, being of sound mind and body, (to be discussed later), do hereby will my will to will my brains to someone, but since I have no brains I change my will and will nothing but will if you need them. Well?

I, Don Parker, leave it up to "Big" Gomia to watch out for Kathy and leave it up to "Little" Gomia to watch out for "Big" Gomia.

I, Dale Hall, being of small unique body do hereby will it in future years to Mr. Dutko for future science use.

I, Don Hartness, being of strong body, hereby leave my good times in typing class to anyone who can stand Miss Short's sense of humor.

I, Jack Seitter, being of sound mind, do hereby leave my front row seat in government to any junior who wants to sit here and listen to Mr. Carroll's wartime stories.

I, Bill Cox, being of stupid mind and weak body, leave to the Junior Class of Madison, Mr. Carroll and his easy (?) government class.

I, Paul Marshall, being of unsound mind, unsound body, and lonely heart, do hereby leave all of the happy hours (which were few) to Sandy O'Neil and Gail Fultz with the hopes that they will have as much fun as I did.

I, Jean Barnett, leave Madison in the hopes that it will be a long time before I ever have to return.

I, Earlanda Francis, being of sound mind and stout body, do hereby will and bequeath my joyous hours (though few) and wonderful times I had in Mr. Bowling's classes to next year's co-op class.

I, Alan Barnhart, leave my ability to giggle to Paul Field's who does a pretty good job of it already.

I, Gail Cassidy, am LEAVING like Snagglepuss . . . EXIT . . . STAGE LEFT!!!!

I, Marie Blevins, leave my ability to get embarrassed very easily to Betty Jacobs who blushes as much as I do.

I, Mike Brewer, leave my ability to keep quiet in most of my classes to anyone who is as disinterested as I am.

I, James Dickey, do hereby will and bequeath for safe keeping my accent to Mr. Bowling.

I, Bob Rucker will my dirty jokes to Jerry Withers.

We, Roy Truesdale, Bob Coldiron and Richard Rettick will our ability to get "A's" ?????????

I, Gale Conn, do hereby LEAVE???

I, Phyllis Brewer, do hereby leave, but not to work at Alber's the rest of my life.

We, Glen Gay and Carl Mockabee, do hereby leave our beautiful physiques to next year's Junior class, who desperately need improvement.

I, Bob Taulbee, will my dancing ability to anyone that can use it.

I, Norma Davis, leave my loud mouth to Barry Kash who needs to break his silence!!!!!!!

I, Clark Foster, leave my ability to keep from brown-nosing to Charlie French.

I, Dave Reider, leave all of the Junior girls to any Junior boys who are dumb enough to have them!!

I, Beverly Stethem, leave all the fun I've had at our basketball games to Tim Heaton and Ruth Augspurger.

I, Judy Cassidy, being of tired body and wrinkled mind do will and bequeath the old tired seat in government to a "lucky" Junior girl that gets it.

I, Dwight Walter, do hereby leave Donna in the good faith that Doug will carefully look after her.

I, Rick Gehm, being of unsound mind do hereby will and bequeath my natural ability to stay out of trouble to Jerry Withers who will definitely need it.

We, Brenda Williams and Judy Wells, being of tired feet and skinned knuckles will and bequeath our great ability to sell bubble bath to next year's DECA Club.

I, Martha Augspurger, would like to will all Juniors the chance to obtain the knowledge I think I acquired from sociology and psychology classes in my years at Madison.

I, Barb Wilson, leave Mr. Grimm's tantrums in Chorus to anyone who can duck when he starts throwing things.

I, Beverly Reeve, being of mixed-up mind do hereby will and bequeath my ability to sell faucet parts to a plumber or to anyone who has a leak.

I, Buddy McQuinn, should like to leave my government book to anyone who is foolish enough to open it.

I, Betty Taylor, being of sound mind (at the moment) leave Madison and the good times I have had here and take with me three years of memories that will never be forgotten.

I, Janice Brandenburg, of both sound mind and body, do hereby LEAVE! But take Carlo with me.

CLASS PROPHECY

Dear Herb,

Well, it's over, at last. A reunion after fifteen years for the Class of 1963. I've never felt so old in my life!!

As I sit here in my rocking chair looking over the guest list, it seems like only yesterday that I was looking at the same names on a stack of diplomas.

Here's Richard Gehm, B.S. Of course, Rick was the first to arrive at the party; said he didn't want to miss any of the fun.

Judy Cassidy, Phyllis Coldiron, Joy Wells, and Bev Stethem came in, as I remember, in their white uniforms, on the arms of two good looking young men. The blonde one they called Jim, and the dark one, Ben. I suppose they were medical men.

After I said hello to them, I tried to sneak out for a bit of, uh . . . fresh air, but when I reached the door there were the Gails, Cassidy and Conn,, with two tall sad-eyed men and all the little Littles.

Then came Alvery Combs, the garage owner, and his two mechanics, Dick Rettich and Roy Truesdell.

About that time people started coming in so fast I couldn't recognize them. So the party was at full swing when Don Hartness, who owns a chain of food stores, came in with the refreshments, and naturally, Bob Taulbee, being a grocery man himself, had to haggle over the bill.

But Bill Cox, Carl Mockabee and Wally Driever wouldn't wait. They dived right in to the food and soon everyone was eating and drinking. So I went out on the porch to sit in my rocker and rest up a bit.

But no sooner had I sat down when up pulled a station wagon and out hopped Barb Wilson with a dark haired, familiar looking guy, and Frances Burns with a broad shouldered man and a half dozen little Blackies in Pee Wee uniforms.

I went back inside then and some strange sights met my eyes. There was Steve Collins lying on the floor with his feet on the wall, Yogi fashion. And Jack Seitter was approaching Carl Carter with some deal about a new tractor; but Carl told him to talk to Janice, she does all the plowing.

Then, suddenly, a hush fell over the crowd and everyone's attention was turned to the doorway, where a little old lady with a cane stood scanning the forgotten faces. When all were quiet she started swinging the cane in the air, saying, "Where are they? Where are Glen Gay and Bob Rucker?" The men stepped forward hesitantly and the old lady said, "Now fellas, I think I've been fair about this. I've given you fifteen years to get these books in. Now that'll be the books or, let's see, two cents a day, uh . . . one hundred nine dollars and fifty cents a piece."

After that commotion died down I noticed a table in the corner loaded down with typewriters. At the table were some ladies who looked vaguely familiar. After I studied them awhile I recognized Phyllis Brewer, Norma Davis, Earlanda Francis, and Bev Reeve at one side of the table. In the middle was a big stack of envelopes, and on the other side were Betty Taylor, Judy Wells, and Brenda Williams, all just typing away. Over them stood a balding, toothless old man in a bright red shirt, saying, "Alright, girls, now type a little faster. The school board would like these finished by Monday."

Above the noise of the typewriters there arose an argument between — you guessed it — Jo Ann Russelo and Mike Scott. It seems that Mike wanted to hear Buddy McQuinn's latest theory, while Jo Ann wanted to listen to a new party record by Dave Reider. But there were some people who weren't interested in either.

Dale Hall, Mike Brewer, and Bob Coldiron were trading hunting stories and ignoring Alan Barnhart who wanted to go bounce on the trampolines.

And, of course, Marie Blevins and Jean Barnett were standing around drinking punch and giggling.

It seemed as if things were going fairly well and everyone was glad to see everyone else, but I kept having the feeling that someone was missing, so I asked around and found that Jim Dickey wasn't able to come. He was campaigning for something down in Savannah.

Well, just about then is when the fun started. Don Parker and Paul Marshall challenged Dwight Walter and Clark Foster to a touch football game. Soon the interest grew and Martha Augspurger who is a physical education teacher now said she would referee, and Laraine Withrow and Mary Sue Hollar volunteered their services as cheerleaders. Well, wouldn't you know it? They had forgotten all the football cheers, so everyone agreed to change the game to basketball.

Well, Herbie, you know what happens to me at the mention of basketball . . .

I guess it must have been habit, for I heard someone holler, "Hey, Faries! Where's the equipment?" And in came Eddie with the basketball and soon the game was underway.

I received a dandy pass and just as I jumped to shoot, something popped loose in my back. And there was that little old lady again, saying, "Some people never give up."

So, that's why I'm sitting here in my rocker with the pillow at my back. These class reunions are enjoyable, but rather rough on us old folks.

Yours truly,
Darrell K. Root

The Hot Seat Kid!

Muscles! !

When the Saints, go marchin' in - - -

This is work?

Don't look now, but there's the camera kid again!

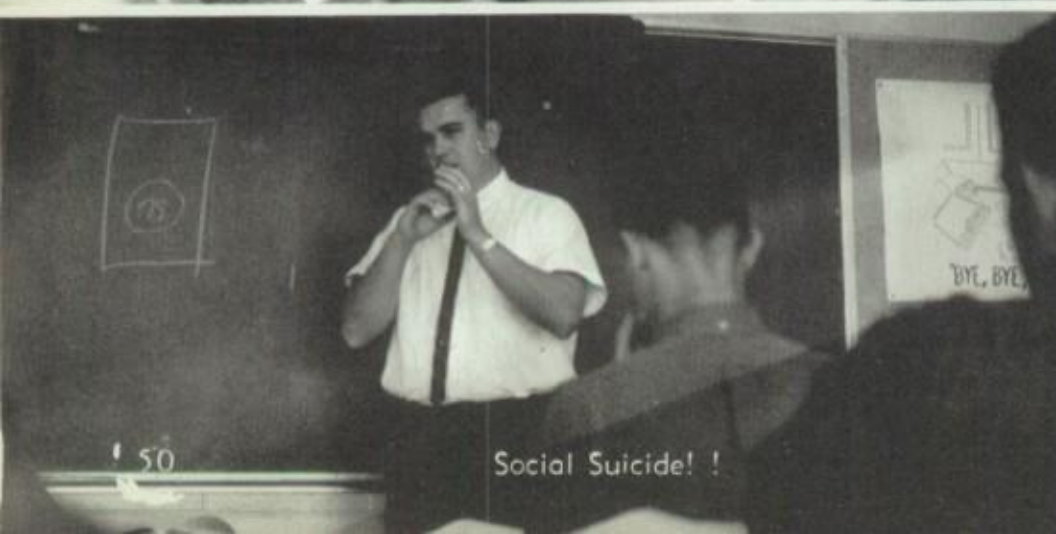

It's such a cruel world!

Back seat advantages! ! ! !

Who did???

Social Suicide! !

Careful, your tonsils are showing ! !

Get ready, jump!

Busy as bees?

I don't believe it!

Peek-a-boo!

Teacher, guess who has size 16 feet?

Oooch! That smarts!

Masterpiece?

You wouldn't dare!

Er, er, er, who!

The pleasant experiences and activities of your life are enhanced immeasurably by warm friendships already gained.

Let them be continually rekindled throughout the coming years!

Helping to bond these friendships today and for many tomorrows is the rewarding experience of Osborne Studios, your official school photographer.

May there be many opportunities for Osborne Studios to provide time-stopping fine photography of your life's future happy events.

FREEDOM TAKES A HEAP OF DOING!

AERONCA MANUFACTURING CORPORATION

Supersonic bombers with speeds hitting 2,000 miles per hour high flying target missiles sensitive radar antennas exciting research to "hurry up" our visits to the moon — these are a few of Aeronca's present projects in our nation's vital defense efforts. An effort dedicated to protecting the American way of life and the individual's freedom now and in the years to come.
